BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Colonel James Hall was the son of Judge John Hall, one of the first judges in Barren County, Kentucky. Colonel Hall married Miss Prudence Stockton on 29 April 1809. In 1812, Hall was elected to the Kentucky state legislature. He served as captain with the Third Regiment of the Kentucky Detached Militia in the Indiana Territory during the War of 1812 (1812-1815).

Charles Richard Wininger was born in Glasgow, Kentucky in 1912. He served in the United States Army Air Force during World War II. He married Novella Tillery Wininger of Gould, Oklahoma in 1946. Charles worked as a farmer and then as a soil analyst for the University of Kentucky in Lexington, Kentucky. He also served as the president of the Barren County Historical Society and was a member of Browders Chapel Baptist Church in Glasgow, Kentucky.

COLLECTION NOTE

This collection contains correspondence between Colonel James Hall and Prudence Stockton. Colonel Hall was writing to Prudence, his wife, who was in Barren County, Kentucky, from the battlefields during the War of 1812. He gives his wife periodical updates of the war efforts and his living conditions. He also gives his wife detailed instructions regarding the maintenance of their house, business, and finances. Prudence often reports to her husband that one or more of their family members has fallen ill or even died. Also in the collection is a Barren County, Kentucky deed from 1851, as well as a certificate from the Kentucky State Militia granting James Hall the rank of colonel. There are also a few original letters to James Hall from his son Thomas B. Hall from 1839-1842. A few family photographs are included, along with some family research and data.

The remainder of the collection consists chiefly of a lengthy correspondence between Charles Wininger and Novella Tillery Wininger throughout Charles' service in the United States Army Air Force during World War II. Charles describes many aspects of his life in the Army Air Force as he traveled worldwide to Novella. Novella similarly tells Charles about her everyday life and activities in Oklahoma. They also discuss mutual friends of theirs and even talk about their wedding plans. Lastly, there are a few letters to Charles from friends discussing various topics.
